PSLE

- is a placement examination
- places pupils into different courses according to their academic ability
- posts pupils to secondary schools by merit and as far as possible into a school of their choice
- need to reflect the relative achievement level of pupils within their peers

Can raw scores from examinations be used to place pupils?

NO.

Different subjects have different difficulty levels. The examination score shows how well a pupil did in a subject, but not how well he did compared to others.

Use of examination scores can lead to wrong ranking of pupils.

T-Score

What is T-score ?

It stands for Transformed Score.

T- score gives the relative position of a pupil's performance as compared to the performance of all the other pupils in that subject.

Finally, all pupils are ranked according to their Aggregate Scores.

Based on their aggregate scores, pupils are placed into the different courses (Special, Express, Normal Academic or Normal Technical) accordingly

Based on their aggregate scores, pupils are posted to secondary schools based on merit and their choices.
